252-20½-New. The fact that the owner occupies part of a house leased to others raises no presumption of liability against him for injury to persons through negligence of a tenant. 284Pa545, 131A537, 42ALR1081.

252-20¼-New. Joint occupation of premises by the landlord and others raises no presumption as to liability of landlord or owners for injury occurring on or from the premises. 284 Pa545, 131A537, 42ALR1081.

252-20½-New. In an action against a landlord for injuries from falling on a common stairway at the entrance of a building leased to different tenants, it was not incumbent on plaintiff to prove, in order to establish the landlord's duty, that the landlord had actually undertaken to remove ice and snow from the steps, and pursued a course of conduct such as would entitle plaintiff or tenants to rely on its doing so. 26F(2d)594.

252-20½-New. Plaintiffs, offering no evidence that a gas heater vent pipe, displacement of which, so as to discharge noxious gases into a bathroom, was relied on in the complaint as a proximate cause of the tenant's death, was disconnected, or even that the gas heater was lighted, when the body was discovered, could not recover from defendant landlord. 94CalA66, 270P719.

1024–40⅓–New. Bondholders of a levee district are interested parties in an attack on the validity of the judgment of the commissioners assessing benefits. TexCommnA 288SW165.

1024–40¼–New. An allegation showing the absence of jurisdictional facts is necessary to constitute a valid collateral attack on the judgment of commissioners assessing benefits. TexCommnA 288 SW165.

1024–40½–New. Under some statutes the defense of limitation is not available against an action for delinquent taxes due the district. TexCivA 7SW(2d)639; TexCivA 8SW(2d)1101.

1024–40¼–New. In a suit brought by the district for delinquent taxes assessed against a benefited tract of land, the landowner cannot complain of a change in the location of a portion of the levee in the vicinity of the land after benefits had been assessed without showing lessening of benefits assessed against his property. TexCivA 7SW (2d)639.

1024–40½–New. In a suit brought by a district organized under statute for delinquent taxes, a taxpayer could not complain of the inadequacy of the remedy afforded by statute, providing for reappraisement of benefits when inequality should arise by reason of changing conditions, since he voluntarily invoked the benefits of the statute which contained a provision for adjusting inequalities as they arose. TexCivA 7SW(2d) 639.

1024–40½–New. Parties. Bondholders of a district are necessary parties to an action for collection of taxes wherein defendants attack the district and appraisement and assessments, where taxes constitute the sinking fund for bonds. TexCivA 20SW(2d)1085.

1024–44½–New. Parties. Purchaser of bonds sold before suit to collect assessment, was instituted is not a necessary party thereto. TexCivA 275SW137.

1025–57 TexCivA 3SW(2d)888.

1025–58½–New. Presumption that only benefits resulting from a plan of reclamation were assessed by commissioners is conclusive as against an allegation requiring evidence outside the records, and such evidence is inadmissible. TexCommnA 288SW165.

1025–58⅓–New. [§ 79a] (6½). Trial. In a suit by a levee improvement district to collect delinquent taxes, wherein the landowner filed a cross action for damages from improper construction and maintenance of an improvement, the court did not err in refusing to submit special issues as to damages for years eliminated by the court in sustaining exceptions, upon the ground that it appeared that such claims were barred by limitation. TexCivA 9SW(2d)396.

1025–58¼–New. That there was no proof of benefits is no defense to a landowner in a suit to foreclose a tax lien for an additional levy imposed on dissolution of the district to meet the deficiency in organization expenses. MoA 22SW(2d)651.

1025–58⅓–New. Plaintiff district is not required to prove that the tax has not been paid. MoA 22SW(2d)651.

1026–74½–New. Personal judgment should not be rendered against one not the owner of the land at the time the tax accrued. TexCivA 287SW303.

1026–74⅓–New. In a suit for delinquent taxes levied against a number of separate tracts of land, a judgment making the aggregate amount of taxes or penalties a lien against each tract is erroneous. 316Mo 398, 289SW925.

1026–74¼–New. A judgment in such action can constitute a lien only on the particular tract on which the taxes are levied. 316Mo 398, 289SW925.

1027–7⅓–New. Voluntary payment of an excess tax is not recoverable. 179 Ark299, 15SW(2d)986.

1027–7¼–New. In an action for repayment on abandonment of a project, illegal expenditure could not avail to the credit of the county. 96CalA76, 273 P839.

1027–7⅓–New. Where the purpose for which an assessment was levied was abandoned, the property owner could recover the proportion of the money remaining in the treasury. 96CalA76, 273 P839.

1027–11 See also 96CalA76, 273P839.

1028–19½–New. That the legislature imposed the greater part of the burden of providing funds on landowners directly benefited does not affect the right of the state subsequently to determine what portion of the cost of the improvement it will bear. 199Cal 668, 251P207.

1028–19⅓–New. Where the precise procedure for providing funds to pay the cost of work done in reclamation and flood control within a drainage district is provided by statute, the mode thus provided is the measure of the powers and duties of state agencies and officials charged with the prosecution of the work and with the disposition of funds in payment of the cost. 199Cal 668, 251 P207.

1028–19¼–New. Where funds are available for installments of the state's appropriation for reclamation and flood control work within a drainage district, it is the duty of the state controller to draw warrants therefor and of the state treasurer to pay them and of the reclamation board to apply them in the manner provided by the appropriation acts. 199Cal 668, 251P207.

1028–29½–New. Under some statutes the state treasurer is not required to pay warrants payable from drainage district assessments as funds become available where the bonds have been authorized to pay such warrants but have not been sold. 199Cal 668, 251P 207.

1029–63½–New. Where an assessment under the Los Angeles County Flood Control Act was invalid for failure to comply with the requirements of such statute, payment of a tax under protest and suit to recover back the amount so paid does not give a plain, speedy, and adequate remedy. CalA 271P518.

1029–64½–New. Where an assessor and supervisors proceeded irregularly to make assessment, under the Los Angeles County Flood Control Act, and failed to acquire jurisdiction to levy assessments against the city property, and further action on the part of the tax collector to sell the city's property to the state for the delinquent assessment would result in uselessly adding to a cloud on the city's title, by imposing thereon additional apparent burdens of penalties, interest, and costs of sale, and the added threat of ultimate sale and deed by the state, based on a void foundation, the city was entitled to injunctive relief. CalA 271P 518.

1029–64½–New. An injunction lies to prevent the colorable lien of a void special assessment attaching to lands in an assessment district, where it is necessary to resort to extrinsic evidence to defeat the lien of the assessment. CalA 271P518.
